“ Though it's been more than a year since his passing, I just now discovered that Maynard is no longer with us on earth. He pastored our church at Malvern Hills Presbyterian in the late 1950s and remained a valuable friend for many years. I offer a very belated condolence and prayer for his remaining family and loved ones...

“ Maynard came to Union in the spring of 1968 looking for a summer intern at Shady Grove in Memphis and found me - I can still see him opening the door and entering my dorm room. He, Lillian, and kids welcomed me when I arrived on crutches for an eye opening summer with their youth and other duties as I searched for direction. A few years later I spent a weekend with them in New Orleans on a motorcycle visit from Florida where I was in the Air Force. Many years later he was a shoulder to lean in Charlotte and where I spent the night with them before bringing Joanne and new born Anna home to nearby Dallas. My last delightful contact was by mail after they moved to Black Mountain. I am grateful for the always warm welcome of both of them - and for the never absent twinkle in his eye. Walt King.

“ Maynard will always have a special place in my heart. In a sense I owe my first call to Maynard. In 1976, He came up to Union Seminary trying to find students who might entertain the possibility of accepting a call in a small church in the Louisiana Bayous. Not long after Maynard's visit I found myself in the pulpit of the Abbeville Church and helping out the youth program at Grace Church in Lafayette. He charmed a few others as well for I was not the only young Union alum to find my way to southwest Louisiana. I appreciated his leadership, his faith, his patience, and his availability whenever I needed a bit of help. With so many others, I give thanks and praise to God for Maynard's life and ministry.

“ We just heard the news on our tv ministry First Presbyterian Church Charlotte. He was our minister in New Orleans at Woodland Presbyterian. Mom, Eloise Bailey age 97 Still living, and our father Dick Bailey were Deacons and Elders and very active in the church. Mom started choirs in the church. My brother Richard remembered him helping with his Scouts God and Country. I was a youth representative in the church. He was a foundation in our faith. Sending love! “ My prayers and sympathy go out to the family of Dr. Fountain. He will be remembered for his wonderful and caring heart. It was my pleasure to have known Dr. Fountain for many years as a patron of my barber shop.

“ I was a freshman at Rhodes (Southwestern) when Maynard was a senior. Everyone respected him and I did too. My father, then Secretary of Home Missions in New Orleans Presbytery, had told me to look him up. Maynard was always kind and friendly to me both in college and at Highland Farms. He almost always said something to lift the spirit and make me laugh. I will miss him very much. With love, Bob (Montgomery)
