

Mr. Asher Samuel Katz

September 17, 1989 - July 25, 2014

The family of Asher Samuel Katz, of Asheville, North Carolina, announce his peaceful passing from natural causes on July 25. Asher is the beloved son of Lauren Katz Mattysee, of Asheville and Jay Katz, of Dover, Delaware and the brother of Braum Katz, of Arlington, Virginia who is also his best friend. Known for his incredible wit and off the charts intellect, Asher was born on September 17, 1989 in Louisville, Kentucky. Great personal achievement came early for Asher as he attended a renowned charter high school and graduated from Brandywine High School in Wilmington, Delaware at the young age of 16. After attending Western Kentucky University for one year, Asher transferred to Stevens College where he graduated with honors and received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering in 2011. Asher's stint at Stevens College included a summer in Ecuador where he studied environmental engineering and an internship with a Fortune 500 Company in Montvale, New Jersey. Always up to a challenge, in 2014, Asher received a master's degree in computer science from Stevens College. At the time of his passing, Asher was in great spirits sharing music, immense knowledge, delicious food, humor and generally good times with his family and friends.

In addition to his parents and brother, Asher is survived by his grandparents, Fred and Jan Kahn of Asheville, Beatrice Katz of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and step-parents, Jerimiah Mattysee of Asheville and Peggy Katz of Dover, Delaware. Asher was loved and respected by everyone who knew him. He was a wonderful soul and will be missed and remembered by all.
