“ I am praying for peace and comfort in the hearts of Carol's family and friends as we remember her. I am grateful to have spoken with her on her 88th and shared my love with "Christmas Carol". I appreciate my memories of her: intelligent and independent views on Life, her devotion to her "Goldens", her many creative embroidery projects, those handmade Santas, years of delectable Christmas cookies, her daily morning ritual of eating two fresh navel oranges, her delicious ham loaf and of course hearing her Life stories of teaching school, visits at "the Bay", and mystery trips ! I believe she now knows all the answers to every mystery. I believe she was met at the Rainbow Bridge by her favorites. I send all her family my hugs and Love from Brussels, Belgium. Sincerely, Diane Bazzell
