

Mrs. Carol Ann Valenta

March 31, 1943 - November 24, 2011

Carol Ann Valenta, 69, of Fletcher died peacefully at her home in Fletcher on Thursday, November 24, 2011 while under Four Seasons Hospice care after a year long battle with lung cancer.

Carol was born in Brooklyn, NY and lived on Long Island her entire life until relocating with her husband to Western North Carolina 12 years ago.

Carol is survived by her Husband of nearly 50 years, Frank Valenta, daughter Patricia L. Zalak of Mastic Beach, LINY, son Thomas F. Valenta of Hendersonville, NC and three grandchildren and four step grandchildren.

Carol loved dancing and was active, with her husband, in the activities of both Round and Ballroom dancing as both dancers and teachers. She was part of a husband and wife partnership teaching Round and Ballroom dancing for nearly forty years.

There is no wake or memorial services planned. She would prefer to be remembered while you celebrate her life by dancing.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to FourSeasons - Compassion for Life/Hospice, 581 S Allen Rd, Flat Rock, NC 28731. Donations can be made on-line at: www.fourseasonscfl.org/donate/ways-to-give/

Morris Funeral Home is assisting the family.

“ Carol will always be that funny, feisty red-head who with her husband, Frank, became one as they danced. She is gone too soon. Kay Beckett

Every time I had the pleasure of seeing Carol, which was too few times, we laughed. A beautiful, strong woman and a perfect partner to a dance team built on love, a truly inspiring person. She will be missed by many, but always remembered fondly.
