“ *Dear Margie,
We were dismayed upon returning home from an extended trip to learn or your father's death. We had agreed to have a meal with him upon our return.
When I think of your father, these words come to mind: integrity, intelligence, personal warmth, generosity, gentlemanliness, class and not least humor. He was a fine citizen of Asheville -- and the world. You must miss him very much. Billie joins me in extending our sympathy.
Would you please pass along this message to all of your family members? Because my handwriting these days is appalling poor, I am obliged to use this less personal method.
We will be sending a donation to the Community Foundation in his memory.*

Sincerely,

“ My family and I are so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. My husband and I moved in next door to him and Nancy on East Forest Road eighteen years ago this month. They were the best neighbors we could've ever imagined, welcoming us into the neighborhood, introducing us to our other neighbors and always checking in on us. As our children came along, they treated them like grandchildren. I feel blessed to have known such a wonderful man. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Dear Pat and family,

The Cole cousins were never close as to geography - we were coast to coast - but that meant our relationship was special. I shared a Penney heritage with Chuch, but that is only a part of what I treasure. I really second the way Paul put it, which is to say, "kind, classy and dignified". We shall miss you Chuch, but give thanks for your many gifts.

“ We are so sorry to lose a man as wonderful and endearing as Chuck Cole. We only knew him for 6 years or so but felt as if we'd always been a part of his circle of friends and family. That is the kind of man Chuck was. A loving father, husband and grandfather, most definitely. He was also a faithful friend who always had a smile on his face, saw the glass half full, the roses always in bloom, the tenor always in key, the dance always in step... beauty. We will miss you very much, Chuck, and we thank God that your cousin, Ron gave us the opportunity to know you.

“ So sorry to hear of Mr. Cole's passing. He was a champion of symphonic music, especially our community orchestra, the Blue Ridge Orchestra. May he forever enjoy the music of the heavenly realm.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3,4 states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.

I had the absolute pleasure of knowing Chuck, as his two grandsons attended Christ School. He was as kind, classy, and dignified as any man I have met. Asheville and all that knew him have suffered a huge loss. My condolences to Marjie and her family.
