“ I met Charles through a friend of his, Joe Mc ghee, at the VA hospital. Charles was so special for many reasons; however, his honesty, friendly way he had with others, positive out look (always) , super smartness and I could go on and on. I feel blessed to have known him and will always remember talking with him at the VA the day before he passed away. Mary ward

“ Charlie was a great man who loved life. He always had a smile and friends to all. He loved his family and friends. he was proud of being an author. Just sent message last week about his 2nd book. I remember him from Real estate office and growing up in north Asheville going up to Giezentanner store. He will be missed so much. He will be up there with the angels.

“ I will be forever grateful that he gave me a chance in the Real Estate business. Representing the 3rd generation of Realtors in the Giezentanner family, I will gladly carry the legacy forward. He was always charming, never met a stranger, witty and bright. His work ethic was incredible and his family pride was legendary. Yes- his jokes were sometimes corny but he always got a smile from those he encountered. He lived his life as an example to all of us to keep a positive attitude and "never give up"! I've never met another person who exemplified this more and like a phoenix could rise from the ashes to soar to great heights. The lessons I have learned from you will be with me for the rest of my life. I love you Uncle Charlie- you will be sorely missed!

“ Charles will be greatly missed. He was a client, a teacher but most of all he was a true friend. He always took time out of his schedule to meet with me. If Charles was in your corner, you were at a distinct advantage. He was a character with character. He was an ANIMAL LOVER! I will always remember him with "Little Girl" sitting on his chest in the office chair. The world was a better place with Charles and is a better place because of him.

“ Charles & I grew up in West Asheville and went to middle and high school together. I joined his real estate firm in 2010 and bought the firm from him in 2014. He was a fine gentleman of a man and a true businessman. I admired his foresight and his business acumen. He will be missed greatly. All of the members at Asheville Realty & Associates are saddened by his passing. And our condolences go out to his children and family.

“ Just seeing Charlie would bring a smile to your face. I enjoyed talking with him when I came by his office. We both liked to laugh and I liked that about him. He would tell me stories or I would tell him stories. He was always very kind to me and I will never forget that about him. My prayers are with you Chuck.

“ Thinking of all of you today - - your Dad became successful in everything he ever tried...how many individuals could manage a business, sell a business and write a book, all the while receiving dialysis three times per week. He was Special and I know he hated to leave the family he adored.....
