Christopher prayed to God, Jesus all the time and had faith and trust in so many people to be helped by his prayers. He wanted to get well, medical help never came or the right people helping. With Love always and Christopher forgave all he ever had disagreements with. God knows how hard Christopher tried.

Life is not ever the same without Christopher. We miss and love him. Mom, Jodi, Nathaniel, Joshua The suffering Christopher endured in so many ways is no more and the only thing to be happy for him. Belief he is happy and free and has angels to be kind and friends to him forever more. No pain from his injured body will he have to suffer. and mistreatment from any of his medical providers arrogantly dismissing his pleas for help God is holding all of the control, God allows people to be mean and unkind and unfair to many people as they did to Christopher. At some point all who mistreated Christopher will learn how they hurt him even more emotionally and were mean and dismissive to him or others will similar injuries and disabilities in their brain learning combined with head injuries, telling them his heart heart the last day and doing nothing and numerous body injuries.. I would give my life to save any of my Children., who all are kind, loving as Christopher and want only to make this world a kinder, more peaceful, more fair to all souls, and a better happier place to live. The meek shall inherit the Earth.

Several hundred people made and sent cards and gifts privately in the honor of Christopher. We appreciate the Love and Wishes. His life will not be forgotten. Medical brain injuries we will try to help others not suffer the same as Christopher had to suffer through medical education and God's help. I thank all who loved and helped him. May God help those blind to his brain injuries become educated their eyes made to see, so that they are kind and of genuine help to the next human they encounter in this world that they will be kind and helpful and loving.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. “ I am a friend of Jodi's, and was never fortunate enough to have met Chris. After reading everyone's memories and tributes to him, I find myself sad to have never had that opportunity to know him. I was telling Jodi that he left such a wonderful legacy-- to have lived such a life that when you are gone, even strangers are sad that they didn't get to know you.

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded." ~Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Chris must have succeeded very well.

With love to all the family and friends...

“ All of my memories of Chris are good. When I think of Chris, I think of laughing, smiling, and being happy. I think of his quick wit and compassionate heart. I can't recall him being mean, rude, or negative, especially toward others. I remember how he would bow as a knight would or hug you instead of a going with a boring wave or handshake. He made me laugh and luckily he got my sense of humor, so I was able to return the favor. Chris loved his friends and his family and they loved him. Chris noticed and appreciated the little things in life, the beauty in nature, and shared his wisdom regarding these things with others. I appreciate the times I spent with Chris and I am very proud to have called him my friend. Chris is a pure soul and is in a place where that will be in full effect. And nice picture Chris! Love ya man.

You Know how you suffered with little proper help for so many years. You loved even the out cast most people look the other way when they see. You never wanted to talk bad about anyone. Brain injuries, learning disabilities, foot crushed repaired and still in pain you walked on as long as you could. You didn't always have help with proper medications. You know how much I love you and I was told your last words before your shower and going to bed were, Tomorrow things will be better, Cheer up you said to your friend. Then died in your sleep from Heart Failure. No one will ever know how hard you tried but God, You and myself I only knew some of it. I tried so hard to get help for you that was proper. Many refused, insulted you and even made fun of you in front of me I saw medical professionals do this and tried to stop unfair treatment. What purpose God has please help me to see the fairness and reason for my having to lose you or the suffering you endured for so long.. I love all of my Children equally and never thought I had control of life, but I would have helped you til the day I die. No one will ever know how much you tried to do and be well and only live to help others. My Baby I am so sorry I could not have been there to take you to the hospital because you may still be alive. But it is done and you are in GOD's Love and people who try to think differently will just bring judgement on themselves to try to justify overlooking all of the challenges you had. I LOVE YOU SWEET HEART. I know you loved us all your Grandparents, Your Dad, Your Sister, Your younger Brothers, Your step Mom and sisters, aunts and uncles, and mostly your two beautiful daughters especially. To sum up all You'll Be In My Heart, ALWAYS. Listen to Phil Collins video and this is what Christopher George would say to you.

I also left out your step Dad and his family I know you loved them all too. I miss you Christopher so much and just have to be strong and know you are well now. My grief will never stop and it is not something we all just do a few days and then goes away. I spent so much more time with you the past two or three years. I know we helped each other grow closer and we knew so much of the struggles we both had to go through. I said please don't go to California what if something happens, you told me that if something did then it was meant to be. I honestly thought GOD would keep you safe and well and bring you back to me alive. I still cannot grasp that you won't be with me here as before. I love you and you did have a sense of humor, kind heart, and I am proud of the progress you made in your life with so many challenges. GOD Bless Spirit and SOUL.

“ You laughed and made every situation funny. Your humor and your beautiful personality took you far. Everyone knew you and of your giving ways. Aurora loves you more than you could ever know. You are her angel. You are Leona's and Clover's too. Zaria Clover prays and talks to you at night. She asked Scott if she could see you at the park today. I know she will. Aurora saw a rainbow yesterday right before I told her. We all hurt so bad. Mom, Dad, Shawn and Diane, Nathaniel, Joshua, Stacey and Amy, Scott and Zaria Clover, Lauren, Stephanie and your whole family we all hurt so bad. We know you are safe. We know that no one can ever hurt you again. We love you Chris.

You are my world. You are my perfect big brother. I miss you so much. I cannot accept that this is real. I cannot accept that you are not here. I just want to hold you again. I just want take back the day we let you leave us to go to CA. Mom and I wanted to keep you here. especially Mom. But, knew that you needed to travel and have new and beautiful experiences. Now you will do so forever. No one can ever judge you again. No one can ever hurt you again. No one can ever shut you out. You won't hurt another second. Never again. You were so kind and taught us so much. You forgave every soul that ever hurt you. Including me. You never held even the smallest grudge. How were you so strong? It hurts so bad, more than I ever imagined. I promised you that I would always take care of Aurora and Leona. I will. I will keep that promise. Your loss feels so unfair. You had so much more to give. I know that you were so tired. You tried so hard. You had found the light and knew life was about to improve. I just didn't know that it would not be here on this earth. I love you Chris. I need my big brother. I know that you are with us every second of the day. I love you so much. I love you more than you could ever imagine.
