

Miss Doris Jean Alexander

August 4, 1926 - March 6, 2012

Doris Jean Alexander, 85, of Asheville died Tuesday, March 6, 2012 at Brooks-Howell Home. A native of Crawford, Georgia, she was daughter of the late William Groves and Lavada Edwards Alexander. She was also preceded in death by her brothers, Joe Alexander and Frank Alexander and a sister, Ann A. Whitley.

Doris earned a Bachelor's degree in Religion and Social Science from LeGrange College and a Master's in social work from Scarritt College for Christian Workers in Nashville, TN. As a Methodist Deaconess, she spent forty years in active service with the United Methodist Church through Wesley Community Center, a mission agency in Atlanta, Georgia.

An active volunteer in her retirement, she volunteered with three United Methodist related programs, Global Mission Partners, General Board of Global Ministries, Aldersgate Homes, Inc. and Wesley Community Centers. Doris was a life long member of the United Methodist Church and was actively involved with United Methodist Women.

Her survivors include a sister-in-law, Catherine Alexander; brother-in-law, Wallace and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held 3:00 PM, Saturday, March 17, 2012 in the chapel of Brooks-Howell Home.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to UMCOR, General Board of Global Ministries, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, NY 10115 to be used in disaster relief around the world.
