“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3,4 states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.

“ Dot and I were friends since I was 17 (she was 18). We were at Mars Hill College together and were best friends until she passed. We traveled to many wonderful places together and enjoyed many times and could talk and reminisce for days on end. She is so missed. I loved her dearly. I pray she is flying around Heaven visiting relatives and Jack. Miss you honey, all my love,

You two were so funny together. Our girls called her Dot Dot and she loved it. I loved Dot and Jack, lots of great memories. She's with The Lord now. Praise Him! Love. Deane

“ I will never forget Dot. We were together nearly every day of our teenage years. I have 100's of memories of her and many of our old favorite songs bring her instantly to mind. Through recent years we have visited over the phone. We laughed and cried over many things and she always knew I loved her. I rejoice in the fact that someday we will be reunited again in heaven and I am sure we will continue our joy there. I am sorry I never met Jeff but I remember the rest of the family and the fun we had when I visited in their home. I will be with you in spirit on Saturday and wish so much I could be there in person. My love and prayers are with you all. I will always remember.

With much love,

“ My Mother, Virginia Ingle and I, Brenda, were both saddened to hear of Dot's passing. We have very fond memories of her. She was always sweet and kind to everyone, with a quick laugh. Even those that are left behind will truly miss her, heaven is smiling today because they have a beautiful angel that has joined their choir. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Jeff, your family and her brothers. May God grant you peace as you mourn the loss of such a precious lady. Brenda
