She was the mother that everyone loved. Growing up she never raises her voice to any of us kids, and was always a mother figure to many more. I miss you Mom

Prayers to the family. I met Aunt Emma Jane and Uncle Joe with my parents at Ruby and Jim West on their farm on 135 Street at a family picnic summer of 1985. Met their daughter Cindy and her kids Kristin and Jon at that picnic too. Lots of fond memories playing games at the kitchen table sipping coffee or iced tea. She always thought of others first. Met Gladys, Beverly and Charlie out on the farm too that summer. We need to keep all the good times and fond memories close to our heart to cherish.
