

Mr. Emil Andrew Huska

September 22, 1941 - May 8, 2014

Emil Andrew Huska, 72, of Asheville, died Thursday, May 8, 2014 in his home surrounded by his loving family.

He was a proud graduate of Michigan State University and a volunteer at the Asheville Community Theater. Emil was probably best known as the smiling face that would make sure everything was okay during your visit to Carrabba's Italian Grill on Tunnel Road. He worked there over 18 years and was a vital part of the Carrabba's family.

His survivors include his wife of nearly 50 years, Audrey; son, Mike and his wife, Denise of Cary; daughter, Christine Scranton and her husband, David of Mills River along with four grandchildren.

A funeral mass will be celebrated at 11:00 AM, Saturday, May 10, 2014 at St. Eugene's Catholic Church with Fr. Patrick Cahill celebrating. Burial will follow at Green Hills Cemetery. The family will gather to greet friends beginning an hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be to American Cancer Society or charity of choice.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.
