

Mr. Eugene "Gene" Richard Campagno

April 20, 1923 - July 7, 2012

Eugene "Gene" Richard Campagno, 89, of Savannah, GA died Saturday, July 7, 2012 following a brief illness. A native of Rochester, NY, he was son of the late Stephen Leonard and Minnie Senn Campagno.

Gene served in the US Air Force during WWII and was a graduate of Syracuse University with a BA in Business.

Excelling at everything he attempted, Gene earned the nickname of "Champ". He began working at his parent's Mercedes dealership in Rochester, NY before his fantastic career in real estate in South Florida. Year after year, he was recognized and won National Sales Awards.

Living many years in Fort Lauderdale, FL most recently he had resided in Savannah, GA and Asheville, NC. Gene enjoyed the arts, gardening and especially flowering plants. Since retirement his passion was stock market investments. He was a remarkable man and will be sorely missed.

He was the mentor, best friend and long time companion to Steve Yates of Savannah and Asheville and is also survived by a brother, Len Camp of Fort Lauderdale, FL; sister, Lucretia Chase of Scituate, MA; many wonderful nieces and nephews and his two loving Irish Setters, Rusty and Sundance.

A graveside service will be held 11:00 AM, Thursday, July 12, 2012 at Lewis Memorial Park with Deacon Mike Zboyovski officiating.

In lieu of flowers, please consider purchasing a plant or flower for yourself in his memory or make a donation to a local pet shelter.
