

Eva Arielle Zamora

October 31, 2009 - August 27, 2022

Eva Arielle Zamora passed away unexpectedly on the evening of August 27th, 2022, at the age of 12.

First and foremost, Eva was an avid and talented artist. She filled hours of her day drawing her favorite cartoons, especially Pokemon, LaLaLoopsies, and Sing-a-Malings. Eva was always a jokester and loved combining her sense of humor with her artistic talents by drawing sketches of mischievous children and quoting a few overheard expletives. Artistic in every way, Eva also developed an appreciation for music. She loved the openings to "Family Guy" and "The Sopranos" and could often be found playing her favorite melodies on her keyboard. Eva loved Panera grilled cheeses, Chick-fil-A nuggets, and Starbucks cake pops almost as much as she adored Ferris wheels and riding escalators, but none of these could compete with her passion for the pool. Eva was happiest when she was swimming, rotating through multiple swimsuits a day.

She will be deeply missed by her siblings, Naomi, Paloma, Talia, and Julian Gold-Zizelman; parents, Stephanie Zamora Zizelman and Wyatt Gold; grandparents, Maria Zizelman and Marco Zamora and Paula and Eric Gold; Aunt Amanda and Uncle Carlos Zamora ("Chef Peter"); Aunts, Ceci, Becca, Olga, Sandy, and Uncle Frank ("Frankenstein"); Uncle Chris and Aunt Thora; Aunt Gia and cousin, Ian; grandparents, Gayle and Phil Perry; father and stepmother, Alex and Jasmine Perry and sister, Luna; great-aunts, Patty and Gail; Uncle Ben and Aunt Karen Nast and cousins, Kate and Jake.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Eva's favorite place on Earth, the Marbles Kids Museum. <https://my.marbleskidsmuseum.org/donate/q/donate>

“ I only met Eva once, but I feel like I knew her much better thanks to Gayle and Phil Perry's never-ending stories of her artistic abilities, sunny disposition and wonderful nature. I can see Phil playing Barbies with her when she was little and holding her up to feed the horses..and the pictures Gayle would share often - with her face lite up with pride - always made us smile. Please know that we are praying for your family during this difficult time. Sending you love and light... Trish and Michael Conrad
