“ To Toni and the entire family, my warmest condolences. Toni, your mom shone with grace, and her kindness forms a lasting imprint on me and countless others who met her in this life. As you grieve the absence of her, may you feel a lasting presence. Carry the very best of your mom with you. May the love of her always overflow your heart and rise into your eyes.

My mom attended the funeral today and tells me it was a beautiful ceremony. Some mighty good church was held in your mom's memory, it's clear. What a fine tribute. My mom wasn't able to chat with you, but she sends her love to you and the entire family, as do I. If you'd like, please feel free to reach out to me -- 864 240 5288. I'd love to offer any words of care I can assemble. But it's more important to listen. I'm here to do just that.

*Warm tides to you, Toni. Chat soon.

“ Ivan and Family, Sorry to hear about the death of your dear, precious mother. We went to church with her for about 3 yrs. during the late 1980's when we were members at First Baptist Church of Weaverville. She was a beautiful lady - both inside and out.

“ I got to know Frances and her family when Toni and I became friends in first grade (40 something years ago). She was an amazing cook and housekeeper and never seemed to mind an "extra kid" for dinner at their table. She was clearly devoted to her work at the Presbyterian Journal and to the church in Weaverville. I was sad to learn of her health struggles in recent years. I know she will be missed. I rejoice that she is reunited with her loved ones, now, in heaven and restored. God's blessings to you all.
