As a young boy Guy enjoyed playing little league and being a Scout. Growing up near Asheville Cleaners he attended Claxton School. Guy loved to talk about life growing up and fun times with friends. He taught himself how to ride a unicycle and had many interesting stories about where he rode. Guy grew up in Asbury Memorial Methodist Church and was a member of Central United Methodist Church. He was a proud 1972 graduate of Asheville High School. He could tell a great joke and could make anyone laugh. Guy loved to talk about the cars he had growing up. Guy looked forward to playing weekend golf and occasional golf trips with his friends. He enjoyed special holiday family gatherings and celebrations. Guy deeply loved his family and friends and would do anything for them. He supported many charities over the years.

Guy grew up in the family business Asheville Cleaners and Dyers which his grandfather, A. Fulton Roberts, Sr., established in 1938. He worked with his grandfather, father and uncle learning the business and was proud to be the third generation. Guy was an owner of Asheville Cleaners and Dyers. He dedicated his working career to the business and was hoping to retire.

Guy was preceded in death by his parents, Guy D. Roberts, Sr. and Barbara Chandler Roberts; Gail Roberts Garmany (sister) and Jeffrey Chandler Roberts (brother).

Guy is survived by his loving wife of over 40 years, Leesa; Knox Garmany III (brother-in-law), Leslie and Bobby Roland (sister-in-law and brother-in-law), Robin Whiteside and Shea Pilgrim (sisters-in-law); Ashley Roland, Bella Whiteside (nieces), Knox Garmany IV, Michael Garmany, Robert Roland Jr., Trevor Whiteside (nephews); Griffan Garmany (great nephew); Dakota Garmany (great niece); two aunts, Susie Ray and Marie Flowers Ray and many special cousins. “ Guy and I first met in the latter 1950s ! Sharing the same birthday, we threw some epic joint parties with our birthday buds Harold Cole and Lynn Robinson. Everybody has a Guy D. story. I have dozens. Guy loved fast cars, golf, and shooting pool, but most of all he loved Leesa. Carol and I will miss you. Rest in peace, old pal.

“ Guy D was one of a kind. We were friends for over 50 years, but he never seemed to age. He also liked to remind me that you and I both graduated from Lees-McRae. I'm so glad we had an opportunity to spend some fun time together with our other friends at the AHS 50th reunion. He will truly be missed.

“ Leesa, and family, Guy D was one of a kind. We were friends for more than 50 years and our friendship never changed. I'm so glad that we were able to spend a fun night at our 50th Asheville High reunion. He always reminded me that you also graduated from Lees-McRae - class of '74 here. He will always be missed.

“ Leesa,

I was saddened to hear about Guy passing. Guy was one of the first people that I met when I moved to Asheville in 1976 as he had become friends with Mike Willis who I knew from school at Chapel Hill. Later we had a lot of fun playing golf at High Vista and on several trips to Myrtle Beach. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

There was not a time that I didn't know Guy D. He used to let me drive all those cars he loved. We went to some High School Reunions together with Leesa driving and picking us up. When my dad Jim Chapman died he came to the house and stayed with my sisters all day. I loved him for that. I will always miss my good friend. Fly High ❤️

“ My cousin Guy D was always a good friend to me and everyone he met. I have many fond childhood memories of us growing up together, especially the time we let your father's car roll off across the golf course and scaring everyone to death. My you rest in peace my brother until me meet again.

“ I met Guy while growing up in Kenilworth where we both lived. As many have said he had a quick and sharpe sense of humor. He was also an individual who was loyal, and always there if needed. Our prayers are with his family.

“ My memories of Guy D are best described by the word devotion. As a lifelong resident of Asheville, he made friends with many people. His devotion to friendships spanned from early childhood through his entire adult life. He was devoted to 40 years of marriage to the love of his life, Leesa. He was devoted to his family; grandparents, parents, siblings, aunts and uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews; sharing of himself with them during good times and challenging times. He devoted his working life as a partner in the operation of Asheville Cleaners, joining his grandfather, father, and uncle over the years to sustain the family business and it's legacy. He devoted his time and treasure to several charities. Thank you brother for your devotion and may you rest in peace.

“"Guy D" was one of the most quick-witted members of Asheville High School's Class of 1972. His dry humor was always "en pointe" and infused with a certain sagacity beyond his years. He was an integral member of our Class and very popular. Guy D: "Thank you for the gifts of wit you gave us in sometimes trying times." Sincerely, Clayton B. Austin
