“ Mrs. Gwenn was a beautiful and lovely lady. My husband is Virginia Morrow's (from Asheville Manor) grandson. He has talked about how when he use to go to visit his Nana at work that he would sit and talk with Mrs. Gwenn. We went and visited her a couple times since we have been together. I loved her the first time I met her. I hate that we didn't know she had passed sooner or we would have came to the funeral. My husband is so upset. If there is anyway that someone could tell us where she is laid to rest so we can go pay our respects please that would be greatly appreciated. We send our thoughts and prayers to the family.
God bless you all,
Matthew and Nicole Spillars

“Gwen will be missed very much. I loved her so much, she always had an answer for anything. She could always lift you up when you were down, she was such a lovely lady. I had the pleasure of being around Gwen when she was at Asheville Manor. Remember the good times, God will get you through this.

Sincerely,
Cathy Jackson

“ It is not easy to lose a love one, so please be encouraged by this scripture from the bible. “Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to fall.”
