

Hugh Compton

June 11, 1928 - September 19, 2024

Hugh Willis Compton, 96, of Arden, North Carolina, passed away peacefully at his home on September 19, 2024, with his beloved wife of 73 years, Maxine Compton, by his side. Hugh was born in Waynesville (Hazelwood), North Carolina, and throughout his life, he exemplified dedication to his family, community, and faith.

Hugh enjoyed a long and distinguished career in banking, which spanned 47 years. He was the proud founder of Hallmark Bank and Trust in Virginia, where he was instrumental in fostering growth and supporting the financial needs of his community. Beyond his work, Hugh was deeply involved in numerous boards and community organizations, always looking for ways to give back.

A veteran of the United States Army, Hugh served his country honorably while stationed in Japan. He was also a proud Mason, a testament to his commitment to fellowship and service.

Hugh's love for his family was paramount. He is survived by his devoted wife, Maxine Compton; his cherished daughter-in-law, Monique Compton; his grandchildren, Sean Compton and Kathleen Crawford; and his great-grandsons, Luca and Louie Crawford. He is preceded in death by his son, Larry Lee Compton, and his brothers, Bob Compton and Kenneth Compton.

A man of faith and integrity, Hugh touched the lives of many and will be remembered for his unwavering kindness, generosity, and devotion. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Four Seasons Hospice, in appreciation of the compassionate care provided.

Hugh's legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and all those fortunate enough to have known him.

“ I worked with Hugh for a number of years until he retired. He was a wonderful person. His wedding anniversary was on my birthday. He and Maxine had been married longer than I had been alive. Somehow made me feel younger and something special that we shared. I moved on to several banks after Hallmark. They were all fine banks, but none felt as much a family as the Hallmark Bank team.
