

Iris Lavinia Weaver

January 27, 1932 - October 25, 2024

Iris Lavinia Weaver went home to be with God on October 25, 2024, after 92 incredible years filled with love and joy. Lavinia traveled the world as a devoted Army wife before settling in Asheville, NC to raise her two sons as a single mother. She worked at the Paul Revere Insurance Company before retiring and enjoying a quieter life with neighbors she adored. To the world, she was Lavinia, but to all who knew and loved her, she was simply “Nana.”

Lavinia is survived by her sons, Dennis Weaver and Rick Weaver, as well as their wives, Sharon and Kathy Weaver. She also leaves behind her former daughter-in-law, Martha Weaver. Her legacy lives on through her cherished grandchildren and beloved great-grandchildren.

Nana was truly one of a kind. You could always find her rearranging her furniture or painting the walls a new color on a whim. She found great joy in her family and was tickled pink to be a Great Nana (or tickled purple, which was her favorite color). To know Nana was to love her. She was a giver to all those she loved, and even those she did not know. She was Secret Santa to many over the years; each Christmas season she would pay off a Christmas layaway account at Walmart, blessing a family she would never meet. Her macaroni and cheese, tacos, and delicious cakes could cure any ailment. Beautiful both inside and out, her loving presence, warm hugs, and sweet birthday song will be dearly missed, though we find peace in knowing she is in a better place.

The family will host a celebration of life with loved ones. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to The Alzheimer's Foundation.
