“ Miriam - I was saddened today to hear of Jim's passing. As an engineer, I was fortunate to have worked with Jim on many construction projects. His work was always top notch. And of course I always loved talking with him about Clemson football. He was always a great friend to me. I will miss him. John Coxey

“ If you spent any time at all with Jim, you would undoubtedly walk away knowing several things about him. These are the things that I will remember about Jim Fallon.

1. Jim loved to tell a joke, sometimes unable to control his own distinctive laughter ... at himself.
2. Jim loved his country and didn't mind telling you about it. I don't think that he ever drove a car that did not proudly display the "Stars and Bars".
3. Jim loved his church. We shared many conversations about Jim's deep rooted faith and his passion for the Episcopal Church.
4. Jim loved his dogs. His eyes would twinkle as he bragged about Cotton, Ruby, and all the others. I was fortunate to be alongside Jim on a few of these adventures and I will treasure those experiences.
5. Notwithstanding all else, Jim's favorite thing to talk about was the love of his life, Miriam. How many times have I heard Jim say "I have no idea what I could have done in life to deserve the love such an amazing woman". Jim was so thankful that God put he and Miriam together and told everyone that would listen.

Miriam, you will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I was a Rod and Gun Club member with Jim. I always enjoyed sitting next to him and hear his hunting stories and his love for his bird dogs. Jim will be missed by many.

“ Jim Fallon was bigger than life. He had the warmest heart and loved people. He was kind and generous to everyone that crossed his path. I will never forget his laugh and Cheshire Cat grin. Every beach song that is ever played, I will think of him with great joy and sing at the top of my lungs just like he did so he can hear me from heaven.
