

Mrs. JoAnna Mary Hough

January 21, 1932 - January 29, 2014

JoAnna Mary Hough, 82, originally from South Bend, IN and now a resident of Weaverville, NC passed away January 29th, 2014 following complications of a sudden stroke.

Jo was the only daughter of Lucille and David DaVault. While growing up in South Bend IN, she was a girl that had many experiences which were full of life and adventure. Jo could be headstrong at times but always had a beautiful smile. She was giving in nature and her love was fierce. To all who knew her, she never sat still and was full of ideas.

During family get togethers, Jo loved to reminisce by telling old family stories. She had a strong (non-strategic) will to win at any game you play with her, whether it be on the computer playing Words With Friends, or playing cards at the kitchen table. She was always up for any good game especially when it came to cards. Her computer was her lifeline and she cherished communicating through Facebook. Jo was always one to give; to her family, her friends, and even her community. She would not want us to be making "a big fuss" about all of this, but we are. To know her was to love her. No one could have a better Mother.

Jo loved spending time helping in service organizations back home in Indiana as well as here in North Carolina. She was active in Sorority Sisters while living in Ft.Wayne IN. and The Welcome Wagon while living in Plymouth IN. Here in North Carolina she was part of Haywood Ministries along with working weekly at the North Buncombe Food Bank along side her husband. She was a member of Weaverville United Methodist Church where she made many of her friends.

Jo was married to her "sweetheart" Paul (PW) Hough for 63 years and have three wonderful children- Marsha Kughler, Tom Hough, and Kate Stoneburner. Jo was a proud grandmother to nine who love and adore her- Jason Kughler, Kristina Dennemann, David Dennemann, Nikki Smith, Justin Smith, Nathan Stoneburner, JoAnna (namesake) Stoneburner, Hunter Hough, and Hayden Hough.

“ Mom, we had a rocky road during my teenage years but most mother and daughters seem to. When I got married we were still mother and daughter but became best friends. We would talk about everything and anything. We both loved to talk. When we got computers we chatted everyday sometimes for a couple of hours at night, in between getting comfy in our pjs and getting a snack maybe, mostly you getting your chocolate or ice-cream. About the only times we didn't talk was if one of us was out of town. I am so going to miss you mom. But will always love and cherish what we had together as mother and daughter.

“ She was a great mother-in-law. I loved spending time with her playing cards and games as a family. She was fiercely competitive. She could never sit still and constantly munching on her "little bits". You will truly be missed.

“ My Mom has made me laugh, wiped my tears, hugged me tight, watched me succeed, seen me fall, cheered me on, kept me going strong, and drove me crazy at times. Moms are a promise from God that you will have a friend forever! Mom you were my best friend here on earth and now my best friend from up above.
