“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.

“ Mr. Garland was a city inspector along with my dad, Weaver Cook, who passed away this past June so I can understand what your family is experiencing. Dad always spoke very highly of Mr. Garland and considered him a real friend and, "a fine gentleman." I pray your are comforted with good memories and the hope of joining them one day in heaven.

“ Elizabeth, my heart goes out to you in your time of loss. As your old Fenner Ave neighbor, I remember the nice walks my husband, John Overstreet, and I took with you and Harold. “Harold” was my uncle and he was a great uncle. In all my 58 years, he has been with my family every Christmas Eve except last year when his health started declining. He was part of holidays and special family events as long as I can remember. I loved going to his house when I was a little girl and always loved when he visited at our house. It was because of him that I got my first pony. I have so many warm, wonderful memories of him throughout my entire life. He loved his family; he loved Eleanor; and he loved "Til"; and we all loved him. I will miss him terribly.
