“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

The 2010 Euchre Reunion. What wonderful memories we have of our shared times together. This group was the best thing that happened to "new neighbors" in Dayton, OH. This takes us back to the start of that group in 1986. John & Pat we love you.

“ We had the privilege and honor to have known John for close to twenty years; what we remembered the most is the goodness of his heart, his stoic attitude in facing his illness and whenever he was asked how he was feeling, he always replied...Fine! Never a complain about his condition. We are going to miss you Mu.

“ We grieve in our hearts with you Pat in John's departing this life we know, and pray that he is in the very presence of his Creator in perfect peace. Ann and I will miss running into him and Nikki ("the boss") on our walks. You are in our prayers for that perfect peace that can only come from above. Please let us know what we can do for you.

*In Christ's love,
Glen and Ann*

“ John was a kind and generous neighbor, a loyal and sincere friend, and a pretty good canasta player. We spent countless enjoyable hours in his warm company and he will be deeply missed by us, and by many others.
