“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ Hall was appreciative of good words and preached simplicity. I will attempt to honor that about him now. Hall was both unique and complicated I learned so much from him in ways and means both good and bad.

Sometimes those lessons came with pain and frustration, but they grew me nonetheless. I know he loved and respected me and I will cherish that. I will miss him, his laughter and passion, his humor and style and am thankful that his pain is now gone.

While I didn't get to say goodbye, I will be always grateful that the last words he heard me say was...."Love you Hall....Take care buddy'

Love you Hall.....take care care buddy
