

Joseph Knox Butler

July 27, 1956 - September 14, 2022

Joseph Knox Butler, a loving husband, father, and g-paw, age 66, received his angel wings on September 14, 2022.

Joe was born on July 27, 1956 in Montgomery, Alabama to Rev. Samuel Butler and Ruth (Krotzer) Butler. He had two beloved children with his first wife, moved to Texas, and began his 33 year long career with Texas Instruments. In 1996, he reconnected with the woman that would become the love of his life. They married in 1997, where Joe gained a loving step (bonus) son, and later a beautiful daughter-in-law and three precious grandchildren. He retired from Texas Instruments in the Summer of 2021, and he and his wife moved to the mountains of Asheville, North Carolina to be close to their precious grand babies.

Joe started every morning with a Mountain Dew, a mission to make someone laugh, and a light-hearted 'Roll Tide' to everyone. He and Pam loved attending the movies together, and for years there wasn't a single movie he hadn't seen. Joe loved to golf, and would have spent every day on the course with his brothers, son, and eldest grandson if he could have.

Joe is survived by his wife of 25 years, Pam Butler; his son Bradley Butler; daughter Charis Morrison and son-in-law James; his stepson Richard Layton and daughter-in-law Emily; his three grandchildren: Jack, Amelia "Bee", and Lucy "Cheeks"; his sister Gale; his brother Samuel and his wife Lynne; his brother Daniel and his wife Nan; and his much adored nephews and niece. He is preceded in death by his parents; his sister Nancy; and his favorite Uncle Bud (Wilbur Krotzer).
