“ Mrs. Lamy, Carol and Mary,
I met Joe in 6th form at Gibbons Hall. We quickly realized we went to the same church which was St. Lawrence. That is when Joe "recruited" my twin brother and me to be altar boys.

Carol, you were the "older sister" who was up at St. Genevieve when we were down the hill at GH. I recall going by the house or seeing you on campus as my sister was also at St. Genevieves.

We had many good memories and times from Asheville High and then later due to college or work we lost touch although I did see Joe a few times over the years.

And of course Mary, you and I met at Asheville Catholic which, sadly, closed and we all ended up over at Asheville High.

I remember Joe as being a very thoughtful person. He cared about people but especially the people around him, like friends and family. He reached out to others and lent a hand when possible. Not because he had to but because it was the right thing to do. Please know we will keep you and yours in our prayers.

“ Dear Mary & Family,

I extend my deepest sympathy. Joe was a "gentle giant"; he had a heart bigger than five men combine.

The first time I met Joe was during one of the gas crunches in Asheville some years ago. Mary, you and I were commuting to work in your car and Joe offered to get my tank filled while we were at work. I thought that act was so generous; I knew from that moment, Joe was a very special soul.

I have enjoyed the visits that I had with you and Joe at your home and especially sharing a meal after Saturday night Mass.

May God take you all in his loving arms and comfort you and bring you peace in the coming days.

Love, Valerie B
