

Mr. Joseph Aaron Morris

December 12, 1986 - August 13, 2012

Joseph Aaron Morris, 25, of Asheville North Carolina, the youngest child of Gus Morris, Jr., of Asheville, NC and Teri Morris of Isle of Palms, SC, left behind all of those who love him in this world, to enter into the presence of our LORD, on Monday, 13 August 2012.

Aaron lived his life on his own terms. Growing up he was an avid snowboarder, sharing many glorious hours on the slopes with his brother, Seth, his dad, and his friends on the mountains of North Carolina and Colorado. At five years old Aaron started riding dirt bikes and motorcycles. It was the beginning of his love for motorcycles and the "need for speed." He played football for Asheville High School and never spent a moment on the practice or playing field when he wasn't giving his team and his school 100% of his physical talents and his dedication. The years that Aaron played for Asheville High School, the team went on to be MAC Champions. After graduation, Aaron joined the United States Air Force, and he served his country proudly and sacrificially in Iraq and Afghanistan. He was awarded the Purple Heart for being wounded during a search and rescue mission of fallen soldiers. When Aaron finished his service in the US Air Force, he signed up for the North Carolina National Guard, serving in Charlotte, NC. With two honorable discharges Aaron returned home to Asheville and was presently working alongside his brother and father in the family businesses of Sonic Drive-In and Morris Funeral Home. Aaron grew up attending First Presbyterian Church, Asheville. Most recently, Aaron gave his heart to the LORD and he was living out his life sharing his passion with others.

In addition to his parents, Aaron is survived by his sister; Lindsey Morris Harrison and her husband Xavier of Charlotte, NC, his brother, Seth Morris of Asheville; his paternal grandparents, Gus and Mary Morris, and Jim and Martha Borawa, all of Asheville, his maternal grandparents, Norman Brigden of Port Union, Newfoundland, and Susan Tucker of Geneva, OH; his nephews, Olivier Eli Harrison and Dominique Harrison and his niece, Jasmine Harrison, all of Charlotte, NC; Aaron leaves behind aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends who will miss him each and every day. Aaron also leaves behind his very special babies, Dixie and Hercules, his beloved dogs who never left his side.

Aaron is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Elizabeth Brigden and his great uncle, William T. Morris.

Aaron's family will receive friends at Morris Funeral Home, 304 Merrimon Avenue, Thursday, August 16, 2012 from 6:30 - 8:30 PM. A Celebration of Aaron's life will be held 11:00 AM, Friday, August 17, 2012 at First Presbyterian Church with The Rev. Margaret Torrence & Rev. Dr. Robert Blackburn, Jr. officiating. Burial will follow at Riverside Cemetery with Military Honors.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Aaron's memory to the Wounded Warrior Project, PO Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675. Aaron was very proud to have served his country. His heart was the heart of a patriot and a hero.

“ A Christmas Thank you..
yes from me Aaron.....

*Im not coming from the grave I come from heaven..yes thru my Dads heart where I visit...I want to thank each of you from the bottom of my heart and now in the infinite love from heaven, for your wonderful friendship and understanding as I walked these last few years to heaven...I see now more than you could ever dream..in a place that is infinite in love and total peace..I can't begin to describe it in human terms, I write thru my fathers human heart and mind and hands..But make no mistake it is me..My father is a loving brave man, but over the years his walk has been heavy..I used to say to him your a wimp and a girl and not being a man to show a loving heart..I never really meant that. My last years and months on this earth I tried to live with all heart..So please, please know that i love you all and know all of you played a major roll in my journey of success..I made it, I'm here and I'm ok.. Please pray for my family, my Mom Sister Brother and especially for my Dad...He and I are more alike than you may know, In the physical world look in his eyes those are my eyes, his loving heart part of my heart...So I wish all of you a wonderful, wonderful Christmas.. Enjoy your families and know God is really with you, I'm with each of you in spirit, really I am...and I will see you again.. so say my name time to time thru this life and I promise you, you will smile and I will visit you in your heart, that is my Christmas gift to you, a forever smile...
Merry Christmas to all of you..
and thank you...*

I Love You,

“ Dear Terri, Gus, Lindsey, Seth and Family, Our prayers and thoughts are with you now. Your tribute to Aaron was truly beautiful and revealed so much of that dear person he was. I had not seen Aaron for several years, but have fond memories of teaching him art at Asheville Catholic. He was a good student and always kind and polite. I can still picture Aaron and Matt (good friends) working side by side on their art projects. When I was young and lost a dear friend, someone shared this with me; "God gives us His love, and He lends us others to love." Aaron is once more back in his Lord's loving arms. Our love to you, Andrea, Roger, Christopher and Jonathan “ Aunt Teri, Uncle Gus, Lindsey, Seth~ I have no words to express the love I have for you all. I am proud to say Aaron is my cousin. He is a hero and such a beautiful testimony to loyalty and honor. He did what so many of us cannot do; he gave his all in everything he believed in. I am so proud of his faith in God and his desire to share with everyone. That in itself is the greatest thing a person can share with anyone! His bravery amazes me. My heart is with you all. What a blessing his life has been and will continue to be. He now holds in my heart not only the memory of the most beautiful little brown boy I have ever seen but also the image of a strong soldier for our country and a warrior for Jesus Christ. A man who loved enough to give all he had to give. Services were beautiful and I am so proud of you all. My heart is full of love and I just wanted to let you know that not only do I love my cousin but I am just so proud of the witnessing he has done. What a great legacy to be remembered by! I love you all! Love your niece/ cousin, Amy Goodwin Balliet~ May you feel God move thru you, just as Aaron prayed so fervently for and allow God's love to comfort you and wrap you in His arms.

“ Dear Morris Family,
I met Aaron breifly at Brittney and Drews place in Asheville, last year.....he was helping Drew clean up his truck. I got to speak to him again at their Wedding this past April. He sent the sweetest cross with his RSVP card to let me know that he would be there, and I told him at the wedding that they were very honored that he came. Drew and Brittney speak very fondly of him...I know that he was Drew's dear friend growing up, and that he will be terribly missed. Love and Peace to your family and all of Aaron's many friends.
