

Mr. Joseph Silvagni Jr.

November 2, 1930 - January 17, 2014

Joseph Silvagni Jr. graduated from Newburgh Freedom Academy in 1949. He was proud to be a student at Newburgh Freedom Academy where he participated in the Young Americans Club and enjoyed the drama/theatre productions put on by his school. After high school he joined the Army reserves where he gained the rank of second lieutenant. As a young man he began his career in retail management working for the MH Fishman stores in New York. He met his wife Vera Norvell there and they were married for 49 years until her passing in 2005. Joseph Silvagni retired after 25 years of service as a district mgr. with Mason Dept. . Stores in Asheville N.C.

Joseph was preceded in death by his brothers John, Jerry and James, his sisters Julia, Mary, and Theresa. He was survived by his children Alexander Silvagni , Christopher Silvagni , Patricia and spouse Patrick and three smart and beautiful granddaughters , Misty Skala, Christy Otvos and Natasha Rank.

The family would like to thank Lissa Forrest Mcglamery mother of Christy Otvos for her guidance and support during this time.

We would like to say a special thank-you for the wonderful care given by Care Partners Hospice and the staff at the John F Keever Solace Center

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.
