“ Aunt Joyce was my mother’s youngest sister.
I still often think about Aunt Joyce, even after more than 13 years since she passed unexpectedly.
I have very fond memories, she was kind, loving, a faithful servant of our Lord. When she was young, she loved to travel, particularly to France as she was a high school French teacher in Michigan.
She loved to hike, completing a strenuous trail in the Grand Canyon with folks half her age. It was through hiking she met the love of her life, Uncle Bruce.
She went off to College in Michigan, a long way from home. Her homecomings became fewer as she made a life in Michigan.
After retiring, she lived in North Carolina. Volunteering at The Cove.
I love you Aunt Joyce, may you rest in eternal peace in the arms of our Lord and Saviour.
