“ *We had some good times growing up ! Camping , Scaly, Christmas at Uncle Danny’s and Aunt Barbara’s to name a few . Thrown together by blended family unity. We also has some struggles but we worked everything out anyway. I didn’t get to see you much but I’ll always cherish our phone conversations, texting , and sharing social media posts with each other. I’m so thankful that you knew Jesus and we will meet again soon. I know you’re well now in your new body , having the best time ever. You can walk and run and sing and sitting in the River of life refreshing . You’re with all our family and pets that left earth too soon . But best of all you’ve seen Jesus !! We will miss you desperately, but I’d never wish you back to the struggles this life cast on you . I will always love you here and hold our memories dear to my heart until we meet again !!
