

Miss Letty Mae Laughridge

August 15, 1919 - February 16, 2012

Letty Mae Laughridge, 92, died Thursday, February 16, 2012 at Pisgah Manor Health Care Center. A native of Asheville, Letty was the daughter of the late John Franklin Laughridge, Sr. and Sally C. Laughridge. She was also preceded in death by two sisters, Frances L. Tucker and Julia Louise Laughridge. She is survived by her brother and his wife, John and Jan Laughridge of Candler; and a nephew, Russel H. Tucker of Micanopy, Florida.

Letty attended Asheville city schools, St. Genevieve of the Pines and was graduated from Lee Edwards High School. She began her working career in Asheville, but she soon moved to Atlanta where she worked some fifty years with Georgia Power, a subsidiary of Southern Company. She continued to live in Atlanta during early retirement years, returning to Asheville in 1995.

A life long Methodist, Letty grew up in Central Methodist Church in Asheville, transferred her membership to Atlanta's Emory Heights United Methodist Church and on her return to Asheville joined Skyland United Methodist Church where she participated as long as her health permitted.

Pisgah Manor became Letty's "home" in February 2011. The family is most grateful to all members of the Pisgah Manor staff and the students from the school who became family to Letty. Their competence and professionalism were always balanced with kind personal care.

In lieu of flowers, a gift to Pisgah Manor Health Care Center, 95 Holcombe Cove Road, Candler, NC 28715 would be appreciated.

Funeral services will be held 11 a.m., Wednesday, February 22 in the Chapel of Morris Funeral Home, 304 Merrimon Ave., with the Rev. C. Milton Young officiating. The family will receive friends following the service. Interment will be private.
