“ Joe and Larry and families. We are so sorry to learn that Ms. Lola has passed. We are sorry we missed the services. We did not learn the arrangements until late Sunday afternoon. She as a special lady. She had a beautiful spirit. She and my Mamaw Opal Boyd were special friends living on Spring Creek. Both are doing a lot of catching up in Heaven now. “ My family and I have spent many hours in the company of this remarkable woman. Lola was one of those persons who filled your mind and heart with pleasant thoughts. I will never forget watching her work in her tomato garden. She could do it all! Most memorable though is her calmness. Never ruffled. Never angry. Always ready to do whatever was needed. Great woman!
