“What an elegant, vivacious, energetic, encouraging, glowing, loving, compassionate, Christian lady Kay Gracey was and is! Yes, she is rejoicing in heaven and singing and praising her Lord, Jesus Christ. She used to tell me Jesus was her co-pilot everywhere she traveled. Indeed, He was in her life and she glowed with His love. She desired that everyone knew Him as she did. She was a woman of prayer and was quick to pray for anyone in need. She had many wonderful life experiences that she would share at friend gatherings. She always brought smiles and laughter to all of us. In her later years she struggled physically, but never complained. She was determined to push forward taking the forward look. In Hebrews 12:2a it says: Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith.” She kept her eyes on Jesus in every aspect of her living. Her testimony for her Lord has impacted many people and will continue to do so. I can hear her voice; see her radiant smile, remember her laughter, and words of encouragement, cards of precious writings, and prayers. I am one of those lives that has been enriched and touched having known Kay Gracey. Oh, I miss you sweet one, but as Daddy (Rev. James H. Johnson) used to say, “Death is but a comma for the Christian in life’s journey. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.” Your last breath on earth was your first breath in heaven. Praise the Lord for our glorious Christian faith, gift of salvation, His Holy Spirit, and eternal home in heaven. I love you sweet Kay and look forward to seeing you in heaven.

“ I talked with Kay just before Thanksgiving. She was having her quiet time with the Lord as she did every day. She told me she was reading from Loch's bible. She said it gave her great comfort because she could see where he had written in it as he studied and how much he loved the Lord. We talked about how we missed him. I told her I sometimes ask Jesus to tell Loch I love him. She responded, "I will tell him you love him when I see him." She lived the word. I have never known a woman that loved Jesus more. She made me want to love Jesus more. She would be the first to tell you any good in her was all Jesus. Thank you Jesus for Marjorie K. Gracey and the love she showed me. I love you Kay.

“Kay Gracey, what a precious woman in the Lord she was throughout her whole life! She had an unwavering love for the Lord, her family and friends which included myself. She also was so kind to Crossfire and always prayed for the ministry as well as supported what we did here and around the world. I must say that she carried herself like the Word of God teaches, always serving the Lord with her talents and gifts. She left behind some sweet memories which will continue long after her departure. Honored that the Lord made sure our paths would cross on this side of heaven. One day I'll see her again and tell her thank you one more time for how she faithfully lived her life for Jesus Christ. Eternally grateful! Until we see each other again, I will continue to remember her as a reminder of the blessings we are given as believers to love and serve the Lord together. In His name, Jesus my Lord and Savior.

“ Kay Gracey was a "sainted saint" and bold witness for Jesus. She loved Jesus, she served Jesus, she proclaimed Jesus and she lived her life to glorify Jesus. Our family has been blessed by her friendship and by the impact of her godly life. We shall miss her sweet spirit of concern and profound interest in our personal endeavors for Christ. We shall miss her prayer support. We shall miss her beautiful smiles and precious words of encouragement. We shall miss her loving heart. We will see her again, however, and we praise Jesus for that assurance. She loved the hymns of the faith, and along with the hymn writer we join in singing: "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be! When we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory." Sweet Kay, we know that Jesus welcomed you home with great joy and He received you with His words: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of the Kingdom." Hallelujah!

“ Your days on this earth are your time of grace-----your opportunity to be reconnected with your Creator, your time to hear the gospel message of your Savior, Jesus, your time to believe it and live it through the power of his Spirit. Jesus tells you that whoever believes in him will never die.

Kay Gracey lived her life on earth to the fullest and touched the lives of so many along the way. Her calm, kind, trusting demeanor were truly an example and encouragement to us. She left behind a wonderful story for us, but Her Great story has only begun, and each of her chapters, that no one on earth has read, will be better than the one before.

We love you, Kay Gracey, and thank you for being an inspiration to us.

“ Kay Gracey is one of the finest human beings I have ever had the privilege and pleasure of knowing. She is a lady who loves the Lord Jesus and reflected it in every aspect of her entire life. Her dedication and service to the Body of Christ/the Church, was a model of discipleship that is truly inspiring and worthy of immolation. She had a greeting card ministry, carried out in her upstairs work room, without any fanfare, that served her well in her later years, when she wasn't able to do many things she would have liked to. If you had a loss in your life, an illness, a birthday, a special event or just needed to be encouraged, you would probably receive a card from this dear friend. She had a computer with software that allowed her to personalize the wording to fit your specific situation. Then she would print it, stamp it, mail it and make your day. Kay loved to discuss the Bible and how much Jesus meant to her. Now she's in His presence and experiencing what we profess to believe. She was a Sister-In-Christ, a friend, a teacher, an advisor, a confidante, an edifier of those who put their trust in Christ. We'll miss her physical presence, that peaceful and serene face that made us feel like we were standing on Holy Ground. However, her spirit will always be with us, especially when we have conversations about all the memories she left us. God's speed Majorie Kathleen Aklis Gracey. I love you, Huey
