“ A beautiful soul has moved on to an ever higher level of existence, but she still lives on with us through those she loves and who love her. I have fond memories of Marge Rankin, going back to when I first met her in the mid-to-late 1990's, when we both sang in the women's chorus group, Womansong. Our paths crossed many times since those days, her daughter, Susan, becoming my best friend. Her smiles & laughter never failed to light up a room, and her positive attitude has no doubt lifted and inspired many! Her physical presence will be missed, but I have no doubt that she lives on through those she has loved and has touched. Safe journeys, Marge. Much love and support travels with you. Keep singing and smiling.... We'll hear you in our hearts! ❤️
