“ *Aunt Martha was always kind and caring to me growing up. She always remembered every year around Christmas to make cookies Shaped like dog biscuits for my brother Grayson and myself. Seemed like she always was happy to see us every time we visited or got together for family events.....always smiling and laughing. She was a great aunt. Love you Aunt Martha,

“ I was so blessed to have Martha, (fondly called "Martini"), as my sister. Martha was a cheerleader in high school and she maintained her strong spirit for life by actively participating in civic events and being a cheerleader for those less fortunate. Her leadership was dedicated to God, her beautiful daughter Holly, and to the community at large.

Martha enjoyed numerous family and social gatherings and you could always find her actively communicating with others. She had an infectious laugh, and her sense of humor provided uplifting and healing, as she always drew people away from their troubles and towards their Faith. Martha shared her smile with the world, and her famous greeting to me "hello darling..", will always ring in my heart. Following in the steps of her mother, Mary Hall, who served as a nurse at Mission Hospital in Asheville, Martha expressed cheer and encouragement to all, while enjoying listening to others and sharing a genuine spirit of friendship and devoted love for all of her family and friends.

As I journeyed back to North Carolina, from my doctoral symposium this past July, I was very thankful to spend time in Asheville with my siblings. Our family was blessed with all of the love, care, and support my sister Alice extended to Martha, during her extended illness. We shared Martha's birthday on August 9th, and Martha was so happy to be surrounded by family and friends, and a fabulous chocolate birthday cake!

I am also delighted that my twin brother David was able to visit Martha and provide her with comfort and inspired music. Martha would always join in the singing, and had a great gift for music, that was part of her First Baptist Church choir experience.

Martha was a wonderful sister and friend, and I will always cherish her love in my heart, and the sweet expressions and care she shared for my daughter, Amelia. Let there be more Light, like Martha beamed with her sweet spirit, and may the world rejoice that she lived a purpose filled life for our wonderful Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

With our whole hearts and uplifted prayers,

Doris Hall and Twin David Hall

With love and sympathy to Martha's daughter Holly

With love and gratitude to Alice Reeves, our sister
