Our wonderful experiences and memories of Miss Jo are endless as is our sorrow to be unable to gather with her loved ones to celebrate her remarkable and generous life. We send love to all her family and friends and look forward to the future when we can get together again. We know she is with loved ones in heaven who she has longed to see again and will be a very special guardian angel to those of us left here to weather this very odd time of the pandemic. We send our love, virtual hugs and wish God's blessings to all her loved ones at this difficult time. XOXOX Benn & John

Jo was so kind and loving to my children and all the children in the neighborhood. They grew up climbing in the magnolia tree in her front yard. Sometimes she would come out and talk and offer cookies. You could always feel the immense kindness in her heart. I feel very lucky to have known her and am grateful for her presence in our lives.
