“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ I am Barbara Gibbs Barton's granddaughter and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. Grandma has spoken of her childhood friend Mary Lee for so many years and even though I never met Mary, i feel as if I had. Grandma has a Barrington school picture in her room and she has shown it to me so many times, making sure to point out her friend Mary Lee each and every time. I am so glad that the two women were able to stay in touch with letters all these years even though they were so far apart. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time. Best regards, Beth Barton Rondeau
