“ There are so many to share but some of my favorite memories were when we went white water rafting and jumping off the cliff. Just the whole trip to NC. Sliding down the rocks into the water. Any time we spent together with the kids was amazing. I couldn't have been sent a better friend than you to grow with even through our bad times we have always been there for eachother. I miss you so much. Xoxo

“ I still can't believe this is true. Now you are an angel in heaven. you are now with your son and can hug him once again as well as your dad. I only pray for peace for you. What a great person and friend you were . I will never forget all your talks with me that helped me through my horrific journey with Josephine and My daughter Heathers addiction problem. I lost a friend but gained another angel to watch over me and my family, because that's what you would have said to me 😭😭. Michelle's sons , stepchildren, grandchildren , ex- husband, mother and boyfriend and animals ,May God give peace and comfort to you all of you. She will be must as much as she was lived on this earth 😭😭😭. I love and will miss you My fiend Michelle. R.I.P
