

Mrs. Mildred Chaney Miller

August 13, 1918 - July 15, 2013

Mildred Chaney Miller, 94 of Asheville was called home Monday, July 15, 2013 at Trinity View Retirement Center. A native of Monroe, NC, she was daughter of the late Frank and Loma Faulkner Chaney. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Woodrow "Woody" Miller and sister, Maude Dixon Chaney Bonner.

A registered nurse, Mildred was a graduate of Mercy Hospital in Charlotte, NC. She received her Public Health Nursing training at UNC Chapel Hill and special education at Western Carolina University. Following 34 years of service, she retired in 1977 from the Buncombe County Health Department where she was Supervisor and Co-Director of Public Health. Very active in both local and state organizations, she held many offices in the health field. She was a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Asheville.

Survivors include her daughter, Marcia Miller Ray and her husband, Rod of Gloucester, VA; granddaughter, Carmen Ray Charalambous and her husband, Harris of Columbia, MD; grandson, Simon G. Ray of California; nephew, James T. Miller of Plano, TX and sister-in-law, Marilyn Anderson of Anderson, SC.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Building Fund, 10 North Liberty Street, Asheville, NC 28801 or to NC Highway Beautification Foundation, PO Box 25201, Raleigh, NC 27611.

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Mildred Chaney Miller

October 07, 2023 at 11:15 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3,4 states “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope. jw.org

Ana - July 18, 2013 at 09:09 AM