“ I have lots of wonderful memories of my cousin, Paul. Mostly, I remember how very helpful both he and Shirley were to me when I needed help securing a place for my parents to live when they were dying. I could not have gotten through all the paperwork, the phone calls, the tears and sadness I felt without them. I remember meeting them for Chinese dinners at a place they liked out in Owings Mills, MD and all the silly things he used to say about Shirley -- and she would laugh, too. I remember his big smile. The Ford sense of humor.

My husband has a nickname for me, Muffin. That led to Paul calling me Blueberry. I will miss hearing me called Blueberry. I will miss our long phone calls conversing about life, loss, the Ford's, my parents. Paul was the link to my family. I have no one now. He was so much more than a cousin -- for me, he was like my other father. I could tell him anything. He never judged me.

I love you, Paul. Thankfully, we always ended our phone calls the same way -- "Love you." "Love you, too."

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, it is my hope your family will find comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that "death will be swallowed up forever." It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.
