

Mrs. Pearl Bromberg

March 14, 1923 - January 3, 2018

Pearl Bromberg (nee Lisansky), passed away peacefully in her 95th year on January 3 in Rutherfordton, NC in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Survived by her daughter Debbi Stanfield and husband Craig Stanfield of Rutherfordton NC, her son, Dr. Kenneth Bromberg and his wife Dr. Philippa Gordon of Brooklyn NY, her Granddaughter Johanna Craig (Wesley) and great granddaughters Zara and Amity Craig of Charlottesville, Virginia and her Granddaughters Sophie, Maxx and Eve of Brooklyn, NY and many cousins both here and abroad. Predeceased by her husband Oscar, her brother Dr. Milton Lisansky and sister Rhoda Salz.

Pearl was born in Bronx in and raised her children in Little Neck Queens. After retirement she spent many years in Delray Beach, FL and in Lee, MA. Retired in 1980, Pearl, a teacher with the New York City Board of Education for 33 years, taught Health Education at Andrew Jackson High School and then John Baum High School in Flushing Queens where she was the Dean of Girls. Both Pearl and Oscar were proud NYC teachers and Union members who cared very much about teaching.

She had a great sense of humor up until the end. She loved to play tennis and volunteered at Tanglewood during her many summers living at The Villages of October Mountain and went to theater and dance events in the Berkshires with her best friend Gladys Botie of Pompano Beach, FL.

When her daughter and son-in-law retired and settled on their farm in June of 2013, Pearl came with them. She enjoyed sitting on the porch watching the horses graze and the beautiful seasons the area has to offer. We thank her caretakers Sandy, Linda and Patricia for all the love and kindness they showed her and were thankful for the help from Hospice of the Carolina Foothills. If anyone would like to make a tax deductible donation in her memory, please send to Hospice of the Carolina Foothills, PO Box 336 Forest City, NC 28043

“ This was my Aunt Pearl, whom I knew for the sentient portion of 70 years. My enduring memories are of family gatherings, in Queens, in Milford, and in assorted other places including here in England, and most recently in Washington in 2016. She was always good value; funny, a little tart, sincere and interested in almost everything. When in England, I remember her advising Oscar on driving on the left and shifting gears with your left hand instead of right - a lot to remember. They visited us several times including in St Ives, and she was an excellent visitor and tourist - asking lots of questions and enjoying the lifestyle differences rather than, as some do, resisting them. She raised my lovely cousins, and, as you can at least partially judge a person by their offspring, was clearly successful with both their character and achievements.

She had a long and good life, but will nevertheless be much missed. Our sincere condolences to Debbie and Kenny, and to all the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Pearl's departure is a loss for us all.

“ Pearl, we will so miss seeing you when we visit Craig and Deb! Your daughter and son in law helped you have an amazing final number of years. You raised an amazing daughter and know that she will miss you. I do know that she will find comfort in knowing you are going to share your time with your husband now and forever. please know that you touched our lives even though we only got to see you for a short while every time we visited. And we find comfort in knowing that you left this present world on your own terms. I only hope that we all get to do the same. All of our love. Martin and Susan Côté, and Sophia

“ I am truly going to miss my sunshine. I would often tell her when I would fix her hair she was beautiful, she would correct me and say gorgeous. I loved being there for her. We had lots of good times. She loved it when I would make her French toast or even an egg cream to drink. Many good memories. She is a void in my heart. Until we meet again. Love you Pearl.
