

Mrs. Phyllis B. Scher

December 25, 1929 - February 19, 2014

Phyllis B. Scher, loving mother and grandmother, born on December 25, 1929, died February 19, 2014, surrounded by her children in her home.

Born in Hillside, New Jersey, she resided for many years with her family in Convent Station, New Jersey. She received a Master's Degree from Seton Hall University, specializing in speech, language and auditory processing disorders. Her skills enabled many patients to overcome their communication deficits. She especially enjoyed seeing progress in the children with whom she worked.

Ms. Scher moved to Asheville in 1996. She was very active in the establishment of the College for Seniors at UNCA. She participated in committees, and attended, as well as taught, many courses.

Ms. Scher had a lifelong commitment to the arts and to cultural activities. A veteran flower gardener, her neighbors tended her garden with care when she was unable to do so.

Ms. Scher is survived by daughter, Gail Eisnitz of Asheville; daughter, Lisa Wolff and her husband, Robert, of Hershey, Pennsylvania; granddaughters, Jessica and Amanda Wolff; and brother, Norman Scher and his wife, Nancy, of South Orange, New Jersey.

A memorial service will take place on Sunday, February 23, 2014 at 4 o'clock p.m. at Congregation Beth HaTephila.

For those who wish, donations may be made to the charity of one's choice or to the Congregation Beth HaTephila Music Fund or New Prayer Book Fund.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. May these words give you a new hope.
