“ Danny, Sandy and Morgan.

I cannot begin to tell you how very sorry I am for your loss. I would never begin to say I know how you feel. No matter what life holds for our children, we love them and care for them in every situation. Tripp spent many hours and days at your house with all of your children. Those memories are still precious. May God give you comfort in knowing that Preston is now in His arms and is at peace.

“ HI Danny, Sandy and Morgan,
Lauren, Spencer and I are so very sorry for your loss of dear Preston. Although we have not seen each other for several years, raising our kids together at First Pres brought many joyful moments.
I only remember Preston as being so very polite and thoughtful of others. Your loss is a precious reminder of how grateful we should all be each and every day for the gift of lives we have and love in our midst.

My prayers are for you in this time of loss - and joy for Preston in transitioning to the life triumphant.

May God Bless you and be present with you during this very sad time.

*My best,
Donna Ensley (formerly Pierce)*
