

Revonda Hensley

June 12, 1943 - July 2, 2024

Revonda McDevitt Hensley (81) passed away peacefully at Black Mountain Neuro Medical Center on July 2, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Madison County, NC, Revonda was the daughter of Harley and Fina McDevitt. She is preceded in death by her brothers Dedrick, Fredrick, Charles Howard, Harley Jr., and her sister Texine. She is survived by her sister Bertha Pace (Harold).

Revonda leaves behind a legacy cherished by her daughters Deloris Dixon (Keith) and Jeannette Capps (Derek), three grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Throughout her life, she embraced adventure and joy, living in multiple states and enjoying a diverse career that ranged from making blankets at Beacon Manufacturing to managing a bar in Texas. She had a passion for motorcycle riding, loved country music, dancing, and shooting pool.

Known for her independence and strong spirit, Revonda lived life on her own terms. Her vibrant personality and unwavering love for her family and friends will be deeply missed.
