“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ I went to school with Robbie at Asheville High, he ALWAYS has a positive attitude and a smile on his face. Robbie was ALWAYS nice to everyone he came into contact with, if the world had more people like Robbe the world would be a much better place.

“ I can't remember a time when I didn't know Robbie. He was always my favorite of my brother's friends and always made me smile. Sometimes I say he was my first love because at 6 years old, I was pretty sure I wanted to marry him :) I got to visit with him one last time last year and I will always treasure that. Sending all my love and warm thoughts to his family and all those who loved him.

“ I am so very sorry to hear about Robbie. I remember him from the time he was 5. What a funny, full of life kid. I'll always remember his kind nature and wonderful sense of humor. What a tragic loss at such an early age. I will always remember him and just thinking about him now brings a smile to my face. Cherish the wonderful memories. Robbie Berdahl will be missed. I will think of him often.

“ *The world was a better place because Robbie was in it. His kindness & caring impacted everyone he met. The way he handled adversity was one of his strong suits, to the point that people who know him are now saying what would Robbie do (WWRD) when a situation arises. That is a huge testament to the way he lived is life. Physically Robbie is no longer with us, however he will live on forever in our hearts, minds & actions!!!
I will love you & miss you always

“ Robbie was such a nice, sincere man. Through his sickness I didn't know him to ever complain, he remained positive and almost always had a smile on his face while at work. He was strong during a difficult time when many would crumble. I am so sorry to hear the world has lost such a wonderful person. My thoughts are with his family as they grieve their loss.

“ To me, even when he was a child, Robbie was always "larger than life" -- with a big heart, a big appetite, and a big smile. When I first met him, he was five years old, and before I knew it, he was "larger than life" in physical terms as well! That is why our memories and our love for him will always be larger, more powerful, and stronger than death. We will always remember you, love you, and miss you, "Robbsie".

“ I went to High School with Robbie and one of our running jokes was that (because he was huge), he would walk toward me and sort of pretend to be menacing and threatening and puff out his chest and then inevitably break out in a huge smile. The funny part, of course, was the idea of Robbie being able to act menacing or threatening. :) I've never met a kinder soul than his and I wish I had seen his smile more often in recent years. My heart goes out to all who knew and loved him.

“ We will always remember Robbie's smile and his cheerful attitude. He, your whole family, has faced these past two years plus with courage and grace, an example to us all. Robbie was a sweet, caring person. I am certain his light continues to shine on where it needs to be, and the joy he brought to those on this earth are memories to be cherished. He will be missed, not only by his loving family, but by many friends. Just his exuberant personality and kind ways endeared him to all who knew him. Especially to his family, as you move forward in the days ahead, hold onto all that was special about Robbie and how he enriched your lives. With much love, “ Robbie and I worked together for many years at office environments. Robbie was the hart and work horse of our crew. I have many memories from our time working together from endless hours working to more than one out of town job that was way more fun at work than it should have been! Thank you for the memories you will be missed.

“ I didn't know Robbie was sick. All I know is that I am in disbelief. Robbie was a incredible friend to me when I didn't have many friends. He never judged me or made fun of me ever. I would check his Facebook about once a month just to see what he was up to. Then today I am getting my daughter to take a nap and I am browsing through Facebook and my worst fears came though me and I wasn't sure how to respond. I couldn't believe it. I thought man what happened . Then I was reading some of the other comments on his Facebook and it all made sense. This sucks. I have lost 2 people this year to cancer. You will be missed Robbie. Heaven just got a true gem. R.I.P my friend. Prayers to the family and other friends of Robbie . I have to keep thinking about the verse that says Jesus give me peace that goes beyond my understanding.
