

Mr. Robert P. "Bob" Ingle

July 16, 1933 - March 6, 2011

For those paying respect to Mr. Ingle and his family, attending the visitation at Morris Funeral Home. A shuttle service will be provided from Merrimon Avenue Baptist Church Parking Lot across the street to the Morris Funeral Home.

Robert Pierce Ingle, grocer and humanitarian, died at the age of 77 on Sunday, March 6, 2011 after an extended illness.

Robert was born in Asheville on July 16, 1933 to Beulah G. Ingle and Elmer Ingle. He grew up as a member of The Cathedral of All Souls in Biltmore Village. The Ingle family is of long standing in the grocery business and by the age of six, Robert was working in his father's store.

As a young man, Robert attended Christ School and later graduated from Lee Edwards High School in 1952. After graduation, he volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and was honorably discharged in 1954 with the rank of Sergeant.

Robert returned to Asheville where he met Laura A. Laxton, who became his wife in 1956. Together, they moved to Florida where he attended the University of Miami until 1960. Robert worked for Kraft Foods in Florida before returning to Asheville where he opened the first Ingles grocery store in 1963. This was the beginning of what Ingles Markets has become today: a strong, family-oriented, regional grocery chain. Fairness and honesty were fundamental traits Robert used daily in conducting business with his partners, loyal associates, and customers. Throughout his life Robert was supportive of helping those in need and giving to many charitable causes.

Mr. Ingle was preceded in death by his father Elmer Ingle; mother Beulah G. Ingle; sister Mary Jane Murdock, brother James E. Ingle and granddaughter, Michele S. Federico.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Laura A. Ingle; his daughters Laura L. Sharp, Sheree A. Federico, Maria E. Murphy and her husband Mark; son Robert P. Ingle II and his wife Nicole; his eleven grandchildren Melissa L. Federico, Michael A. Federico, Taylor E. Federico, Stephanie M. Sharp, Robert M. Sharp, Robert P. Ingle III, Isabelle A. Ingle, Maitlyn A. Murphy, Melanie T. Murphy, Megan K. Murphy and Mia C. Murphy.

The family will receive friends Wednesday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. at Morris Funeral Home on Merrimon Avenue. Funeral services will be held at The Cathedral of All Souls at 2 p.m. on Thursday, March 10, 2011 with the Very Reverend Todd Donatelli officiating. Interment will follow at Green Hills Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The Salvation Army, 204 Haywood Street, Asheville, NC 28801, American Red Cross, 100 Edgewood Road, Asheville, NC 28804 or The Cathedral of All Souls, 9 Swan Street, Asheville, NC 28806.

“ I worked for Ingle's Market #14 when I was in high school and college. I will never forget Mr. Ingle coming to town to take all of the employees of our store out to dinner. As a 16 year old, I was so impressed. I remember him shaking all of our hands and speaking to each one of us. Thanks for my first job, Mr. Ingle, it enabled me to go to college. Years later, my son worked at Ingle's while in high school. I still shop at Ingle's. Such a great store that was built on family values.

“ Bobby,

I was sorry to hear that your dad had passed away. He was only 4 years older than I, and I'll always remember reading about him in our trade journals and admiring the success of your company.

I'm certain he was very proud of the company he left behind and the team he left to run it.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to you, your family, and your company.

“ My admiration for your Husband and Father is endless. He was always willing to help me when I needed extra funds for my Cheerleaders at Asheville High School. Be it, money for camp, or to help with shoes, and once to send one of our young ladies to compete in a National Competition. There was never a hesitation, only the thought that this was helping a young person have success, something he believed in earnestly. My admiration of his work ethic, community contributions, and role model for so many young people has never been surpassed. Asheville has lost a treasure, but his legacy lives through you, My sincere sympathy at this time. Anita Wood

“ *To The Ingles Family,
I know that you all have lost a Husband, a Father, and a Grandfather, and the heart of your Family.
I lost a man that I admired that gave me a chance to work for his company and to give me the chance to lead one of his stores. He was a man of great knowledge, a man that knew that it took a penny to make a million. He once told me many of years ago, " Don't crush those milk boxes those cost 7 cent and they make great ways to carry out groceries." He made me a part of the Ingles family and I grieve with all of you!

“ Being an employee of Ingles Markets I had the pleasure of meeting Mr.Ingle on a couple of occasions. He was truly a wonderful man. I remember standing out front of the warehouse in Black Mountain, Mr.Ingle was coming in to work for the day, He took the time to talk with me and ask me about my life. I will never forget it. I am so grateful to be a part of his company that he worked so very hard to build. My wife and I would like the Ingle family to know that you are all in our prayers. And take comfort in knowing, Mr.Ingle is truly at peace now, He has no more hurt or suffering, He is gone back to from where he came, That is with Almighty God, Our Father, The creator of the Heavens and Earth and all the things in them.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Ingle during the brief time that I worked in the corporate office. I would run into him getting off and on the elevator, and occasionally in the mail room. He was always very pleasant to me. I worked one holiday, and I saw him as I was leaving that day, and he took the time to thank me for coming in to work that day. That let me know that Mr, Ingle had a heart for people in general. My heart felt sympathy goes to Mrs. Ingle & The Ingle Family during your loss. “ Bob was truly a great man. Like many others, I owe a great deal of my livelihood to Bob. He gave our small advertising agency, The Alpha Group, the chance to make a contribution and rewarded us fairly for our efforts. One day I asked his advice on how to build a successful business. He told me, "Surround yourself with good people, and take care of them." Rather than take credit himself, he attributed his success to Landy Laney, Vic Fisher (two former presidents of Ingles Markets) and the thousands who worked for him.

As impressive as his business accomplishments were, his greatest achievements were in his family life. His lovely wife Laura is as caring as anyone you'll meet. His son Robert is a hard-working man with a beautiful family of his own. My heart and my prayers go out to them and the rest of the family.

“ I remember working in one of the Ingles stores as a college student, Mr Ingle came through my line one evening and bought some items. When he gave me a check for his purchases, without even looking at the name, I asked for his license. The store manager was behind him telling me I did not need to do that. Afraid of losing my job, I insisted and Mr Ingle responded, " I just had them renewed and I need to show them off." He set the standard for me then to never be afraid of higher positions when you know you are doing what the standard set for you to do is right.

“ DEAR LAURA AND FAMILY,
WITH OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY FOR THE LOSS OF BOB. I'VE KNOWN BOB SINCE 1967; I WAS WORKING AT HAPPY HILL ON HAYWOOD ROAD AND I WOULD WALK TO INGLES EVERYDAY, BOB WOULD ALWAYS GREET ME AND MADE ME FEEL LIKE FAMILY.

He was the most personable person we've met; greets everyone like they're his friend and always like a " Ray of Sunshine" smiling and such a happy person. He never met a stranger.... you always left with such a good feeling inside when you got to talk to Bob Ingle. He was caring, loving, friendly..... such a Great man. He made his life with the stores like a personal job; always wanted the best for his customers and wanted everyone to feel welcome.

We will truly miss Bob coming in with his lovely wife Laura to eat at our restaurant.

He never wanted special treatment or go out of your way to do something for him;

He was such a great Man , down to earth and carried himself in a way that you just knew

"he was SOMEBODY SPECIAL" but in a way- that made you feel Special just to know him and talk with him.

Everyone will miss him dearly..... It's like losing a family member.

He will always be in our thoughts and memories. Laura please know that you are in our prayers and if we Can Do Anything at all to help you, Please feel free to give us a call. We will always be here for you. I just can't stop thinking about Bob; I lost my father 2 yrs. ago at 77yrs.

old and I am feeling the same way about him as I did the passing of my father.

May you all feel comfort in knowing Bob is at Peace in Heaven with God.

You both always supported Apollo Flame ; we are blessed to have our business close to where Bob was born. We have such a great respect for Bob and Laura -

John always said he left such a great impact on him --- how to take care of people and give them only The Best . Thank you for eating with us and letting Us take care of you.

With our Sincere love and sympathy,

John & Susan Poulos

and Staff " Apollo Flame Bistro "

“ My sincere condolences to Mr. Ingles and his family. Bob was an inspiration to business owners and the like. He took a small business and grew it to an amazing regional power. He was the perfect example of how to make the American Dream come true. He was very charitable, supportive of his employees and was really friendly every time I had the privilege to shake his hand. God Bless Him and his family.

“ I was very sad to hear of the passing of Mr. Ingle. I had the pleasure of checking out his groceries on one of his store visits when I worked at one of the Ingles stores when I was 16. I remember he and his wife being so friendly and approachable. 19 years later, I work at the corporate office and every encounter that I have had with Mr. Ingle left me still thinking he was so very friendly and approachable. He always had a smile, a hello and a how are you today. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Ingle Family. May God bless you and comfort you during this time.

“ In sending my condolences of Mr.Bob's passing,I tried to think of what to say that others had not already said about him.Mr.Bob was Caring,thoughtful of others,respectful,generous with both his time and money.He gave freely to others far more than his 10%.The words of Ralph Waldo Emerson, "It is not the length of life, but the depth of life." and Emily Dickinson, "Unable are the loved to die. For love is immortality "speak my feelings for Mr.Bob far more eloquently than I.Msy he rest in peace and the family find comfort in the above words.

“ Dear Ingle Family,
My Dad and Mr. Ingle grew up together at All Souls as Acolytes. I knew him from Dad and then I married Mike Dawson whose father and Mr. Ingle were friends. My husband has called on Ingles for almost 30 years now. Every time I ever ran into Mr. Ingle he was always so friendly and always remembered my name and how he knew me. I have the pleasure through my job to be in contact with some of his wonderful grandchildren. They are always just as sweet and polite as he was. What a great legacy to leave to your family and the community. My deepest sympathies are with your family as well as our WNC area as we have suffered a great loss in Mr. Ingle.

“ I never knew Bob Ingle personally, but was a great admirer of what he accomplished and deeply appreciated his support of community newspapers. He did so much for so many. We carry the Ingle's insert every week and each year we have a TOPS contest and Ingle's always wins Top Grocery Store, Top Fried Chicken, etc., which reflects what Bob Ingle created. I extend my deepest sympathy to the family.

Ms. Burleson, Publisher - March 08, 2011 at 09:47 AM

“ I just want to let the Ingle family know that your all in my prayers. I attended school with Bobby and Maria at TCR. Bobby was a year ahead so I knew Maria a lot better. Your father was such a nice man and always dressed to a "T". When I lived in Swannanoa, I would bump into Mr. Ingle often at the post office. When I would ask about the family, he was always more than happy to talk about his grandchildren. He knew that I went to school with Maria so he would tell me about her four little girls that he loved so much. I know that there are no words that can take away the pain that you are going through, so all I can say is to lean upon the Lord. I know the pain your family is going through having lost my father to cancer ten years ago. Your family had a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. Mr Ingle will be missed by many. His was a life lived to the fullest and as he lived his life he always had a kind word for others and was just a kind man in general. May God bless the life and remembrance of Robert P. Ingle.

“ My husband and I went to Ingles very early one weekend morning not long ago, and through the doors walked Bob. Anytime that I've seen him, if I put up my hand in saying hello, he always responded in the same manner. I saw the manager moving quickly to the middle of the store where Bob was looking around. I have always shopped at Ingles and remember the old stores that were a fraction of the size they are now. He has done good in the grocery business largely due to customers that return again and again.

From a local country boy grocer to owning many stores in several states, Bob has worked very hard to establish a large, family owned, grocery business. God bless the family as they go through the loss of their beloved Bob.
