“ Bob,

I can't tell you how much I miss you already. This whole thing is so crazy and none of it seems real. I know that God does everything for a reason but it is really hard to wrap my mind around. I know you are with the Lord now in a better place. I bet it is awesome up there and soon we will all be together again and I can't wait until that day. You were such an awesome person and your memory will live on forever. You were definitely an amazing cop but you were an even better step dad. You never treated me any differently than your own. Thank you for teaching me how to ride my first bike, helping teach me how to read and write. Thank you for being there through my crazy teenage years and putting up with my teenage attitude. No one could ever take all the memories that I have away from me and I will constantly be thinking of them. I may cry now and be very, very heartbroken and sad but later I will be able to smile and laugh when I think about how funny you were. You used to be such tease sometimes. But that is what made you Bob. I could go on forever about how amazing you really were but there aren't enough ways or even enough time to tell them all. Just know that I love you and miss you dearly. Know that even through the hard times you were still my step dad and you made a HUGE impact on my life. I will never forget your smile, the way you smell, or your laugh and I know you are looking down on all of us, keeping us safe; our best, new guardian angel. I love you forever. Until we meet again, Hailie bug.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3,4 states “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.
