Mr. Russell, I am now learning of this tragedy. It was a pleasure knowing you when I used to work with you. To hear of your passing hurts my heart. You were a very intelligent and cool guy and I'm glad to have known you. I already missed our conversations but to know that those wont happen any time soon, saddens me. I look forward to having more conversations up in the sky...RIP Russell.

“ I didn't know Russell for a long time but there was never a day that went by at work that he did not speak and ask how my day went. He was always at plant early so he took the time to speak to me with a genuine voice as if he really cared about what was going on. He would even start work early if need be. I will miss that about him. May GOD bless his you all and may you find comfort and peace with the memories you have of him!!
