“ Scott was the best! Quite the unique individual, defying any and all stereotypes; a truly independent thinker who was never afraid to call BS on anyone or anything. I truly cherished his wise counsel and advice on matters both personal and professional. He is missed already. Thanks for the memories, sir!
All the best to your family 🙏

“ Scott was my friend for 70 years since when I first met him in first grade at Budlong School. We were life long friends, and I have so many fond memories of all the crazy things we did together. We were in Albany Park AZA and used to watch Batman on TV before we went to the AZA meeting. We were in the same band together for many years, and he played a mean lead guitar. He was a very smart person (graduated Northwestern University), who had a real love for all his family and friends. I loved his dry sense of humor, and the warm smile that was a constant fixture on his face. I, as anyone who knew him will feel the hole that has been left in our lives. RIP my dear friend!

“ Scott was a dear friend for over 30 years. Our families celebrated together, and we helped each other through hard times. He had a wonderful smile and a dry wit which was usually coupled with a twinkle in his eye. He is very much missed. Rest in piece, Scott, and your memory will be a blessing. Condolences to the family.

“ I met Scott (Scotty) nearly forty years ago when I had the privilege of being part of George Hess's deer hunting crew. We remained close friends ever since. Many wonderful days and nights were spent at George's farm in Spring Green Wisconsin. I also had the pleasure of working with Scott when we were both with The Chicago Corporation. His good humor, dedication to professionalism and excellence in everything was an example many of us willingly learned from. I am truly privileged to call Scott a friend.

“ Scott and I had been friends for over 70 years. I met him in first grand, and went through so many life experiences together. We were both members of AZA, double dated, were in a rock and roll band together (he played a mean lead guitar) and were both in the Futures Industry. He was one of the smartest people I knew! He will be missed by me, and anyone who lives he touched. My deepest sympathies to to his family!
