

Mr. Shikie Lee Frankel

January 23, 1925 - May 30, 2012

Shikie Frankel, born and raised in New York City and formerly from Salt Lake City, passed away in Asheville, his adopted home, on May 30, 2012, after a long and full life. Loving husband of Thelma (Hollingsworth) for 62 years, beloved father of Marc (Jacky) of St. Louis, proud and devoted grandfather of Alex of Philadelphia, cherished uncle to Wes and Muni, both of Denver, and friend to many, many people.

Shikie and Thelma were in the retail fabric business, owning The Yardstick in Salt Lake for more than 35 years. In retirement in Asheville, Shikie and Thelma formed a thriving rental property business in which he was active until his death. In Asheville, Shikie was an active member of Congregation Beth Israel. He will be sorely missed by his family and many friends.

A funeral service will be held 11:00 AM, Friday, June 1, 2012 at Beth Israel Synagogue, 229 Murdock Avenue, with Rabbi Robert Cabelli officiating. Interment will follow at West Memorial Park.

Donations in lieu of flowers should be made to the charity of your choice.
