

Steven Lam

December 27, 2002 - August 27, 2024

To our Beloved Steven

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Steven Lam, a beloved son, brother, and friend. Born on December 27th, 2002 in Los Angeles, CA to Kristy Nguyen and Nghia Lam, and only sibling to his older sister Lynda Lam. Steven brought joy and love into the lives of all who knew him. His untimely departure on August 27th, 2024 in Asheville, NC has left an irreplaceable void in our hearts.

About Steven Lam

Steven Lam was a kind, compassionate individual who was filled with immense love and support for family and friends. He was a very intelligent, loving young man. He loved all of his family more than anything in this world. Some of his interests and hobbies included computers, building and modifying things with his 3D printer and making small models. He enjoyed cooking and baking for the people he loved, always experimenting with new dishes and recipes. He was very talented and skilled in all things that interested him and had a keen eye for detail. He was accepted to begin college at Western Carolina University for computer science. Steven was also an avid gamer who loved to have fun with his friends online. He enjoyed good conversations, laughing and sharing banter back and forth with his friends. More than anything he adored his mother; they were inseparable
